

At the request of the company, the Department reviewed the certification for workers of the subject firm. The workers are engaged in the production of components for disk drives. New information shows that worker separations occurred at the Louisville, Colorado location of MKE Quantum Components when it closed in March, 1999.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to cover the workers of MKE Quantum Components, Louisville, Colorado.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of MKE Quantum Components who were adversely affected by increased imports.

The amended notice applicable to TA-W-35,109 is hereby issued as follows:

All workers of MKE Quantum Components, Shrewsbury, Massachusetts (TA-W-35,109) and Louisville, Colorado (TA-W-35,109A) who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after September 21, 1997 through January 13, 2001 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 4th day of June, 1999.

Grant D. Beale,

Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

MKE Quantum Components, Louisville, CO; Termination of Certification

This notice terminates the Determination Regarding Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance issued by the Department on May 4, 1999, applicable to workers of MKE Quantum Components located in Louisville, Colorado. The notice was published in the Federal Register on May 21, 1999 (64 FR 27811).

The Department, on its own motion, reviewed the worker certification. Findings show that the workers were engaged in the production of components for disk drives. On June 4, 1999, the Department issued an amended certification of eligibility applicable to workers of MKE Components, Louisville, Colorado, TA-W-35,109A. Workers separated from employment with the subject firm on or after September 21, 1997 through January 13, 2001, are eligible to apply for worker adjustment assistance program benefits.

Based on this new information, the Department is terminating the certification for petition number TA-W-35,841. Further coverage for workers under this certification would serve no purpose, and the certification has been terminated.

Signed at Washington, DC, this 7th day of June, 1999.

Grant D. Beale,

Acting Director, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.
